World Youth Alliance

The World Youth Alliance works to understand and speak about the idea of the human person. They work with young people around the world to build a culture that supports and nurtures the dignity of each human person. During the pandemic, they continue to care about the global youth and publish many articles regarding the pandemic issues.

Lord Leomer Pomperada

European Youth Forum

The European Youth Forum joined Global Initiative on Decent Jobs for Youth, International Labour Organization, United Nations Human Rights Office, UN Major Group on Children and Youth, and AIESEC to run a survey about the impact of COVID-19 on young people. This survey covers the effect of the pandemic on the rights of young people and how they use their creativity towards recovery and their proposed solutions. At the same time, the results aim to make the governments and the organizations value the voice of the youth when taking actions on the pandemic.
